

BRUCE BELIVEAU

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

For over forty years, Bruce Beliveau has dedicated his career to supporting the success of students at Elk Island Public Schools (EIPS). His passion for education has allowed him to be a vehicle of positive transformation in each of the roles he has undertaken with the division. He has excelled as a teacher, assistant principal and principal. Over a nine-year period, Mr. Beliveau served both as a Director and an Associate Superintendent in the Human Resources area with EIPS and since March of 2010 he has served as Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. Beliveau has a strong practical and theoretical background in educational leadership. During his time as Superintendent, he has built upon this framework by providing leadership in all educational and operational matters for EIPS, and has created a true sense of team and a positive culture throughout the EIPS community.

Regardless of the role that Mr. Beliveau has taken on, in the classroom, the gymnasium or the boardroom, his ability to build bridges of understanding amongst various groups is a staple of his success. His priority focus remains on the students within the EIPS community, and how the division can best support their success and achievement.

Mr. Beliveau holds a Bachelor of Science degree (biology major) and a Bachelor of Education degree (secondary) from Acadia University and a Master of Education (educational administration – leadership) from the University of Alberta. He has served on numerous educational committees and has a strong record of community involvement in athletics through the Edmonton Metro Athletics Executive.

Mr. Beliveau and his wife Karen have two grown children and his family recently welcomed the addition of a cherished grandson. Mr. Beliveau is an active golfer and volleyball player who enjoys music, food, and traveling.
